partment, Call Up Five-One-YMrs. Charles Rheinauer, who has been quite ill, is much improved today.Mrs. J. G. Swaim returned today from a visit to Mrs. J. G. Kichline at Eastlake.Mrs. Minnie A. Bostick is entertaining the Baptist sewing circle at her millinery parlors this afternoon.Miss Elizabeth Suber of Tampa spent Sunday in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mabry Sumner.Mr. William H. Fuller, who now occupies a good position in Jacksonville, spent Sunday with his relatives in this city.Mrs. J. E. Walker (nee Miss Edna Smith) arrived from Sarasota Saturday, for a few days' visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank Mustin.Mrs. H. M. Hampton and children, who have been spending the past five months near Asheville, N. C., will reach home about the 20th.Mrs. Si Perkins, who has been visiting relatives in Kentucky the last month or two, is expected to return the latter part of this week.Mrs. H. C. Jernigan, who will arrive from Lake City tomorrow to attend the Wesley Bible class meeting, will be the guest of Mrs. Geo. L. Taylor while in the city.Mr. Chas. W. Hunter arrived yesterday from West Palm Beach, where he is superintending a big job for the Florida Utilities company, for a brief visit to his family here.Mrs. Mosher and Miss Fern Bell have charge of Mrs. Thos. J. Morris-son's new millinery store next to Count's grocery. Mrs. Morrison is expected to be here sometime soon.The W. C. T. U. will hold a short business session at the close of the meeting of the federation of Wesley Bible classes. The time of the meeting has been changed on this account.Miss Louise Sanders, who is teaching at Lake Butler, had to return home last week, on account of a slight illness. A few days at home restored her, and she returned to Lake Butler Sunday.Mr. J. B. Carlisle Jr. came up from Dunnellon Sunday, to see his Ocala friends. He returned to Dunnellon this morning, accompanied by Mrs.
Carlisle, who has been visiting her sisters, the Misses Melin.Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Avery and daughter of Detroit, are in the city the guests of Judge Lester Warner and family. Mr. Avery, who is Judge Warner's son-in-law, has been talking lessons in fishing from the judge. Mr.
Avery is a prominent citizen of Detroit and has an important position with the Ford Motor company.A large and aggressive party from Sanford came in yesterday, to attend the Bible class meetings here. Among them were Messrs. Henry Peabody, R. M. Mason, J. T. Hutchinson, S. O.
Pinholser and R. H. Bronson. Mr. Peabody is the youngest brother of Mr.
Clifford Peabody, and has visited Ocala several times previously.Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Townsend of Lake Butler have been visiting their place at Salt Springs, over on the east side of the county. Salt Springs is one of the greatest natural features of the state. It's a little ocean stream bubbling up in the middle of a continent, and some of these days is going to be one of the greatest watering places in America.On account of the meeting of the Wesley Bible Class Federation to be held this week the Junior sewing circle of the Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock instead of Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Barrett at the residence of Mrs.
J. W. Davis on Oklawaha avenue. All members are requested to be present.Mrs. Mary H. Spencer, the public health nurse, who stopped in the city Saturday evening, on her way home from Crystal River, was taken sick Sunday, and had to be taken to the hospital. Mrs. Spencer is not seriously ill, but has probably overworked herself recently and needs rest. Under the care of Miss Marshall and her assistants, she will probably soon be well again.That ever popular actress, Blanche Sweet, appeared in "The Storm," at the Temple Saturday. This is a new play, and Ocala was one of the first places to see it. Like all of those in which Blanche Sweet appears, it was of the highest merit. The only Billie Burke makes her appearance at the Temple this evening, in "Peggy," a Triangle production. It's likely that a large crowd will be out to see Billy.Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Rogers will leave Wednesday for Chicago, where Mrs.
Rogers will remain some time with their son, Irving Rogers, who will be at home with his regiment from the Mexican border by the time they arrive. Mr. Rogers will return to Ocala in a few weeks and will be here at Editor Star: Will you kindly publish the following information for those desiring to communicate with members of the Second Florida Infantry. All mail should be addressed to —, Co., Second Florida Infantry, Laredo, Texas. Regiment leaves today. Officers and men in good health and spirits. Everyone requested to send me magazines and papers.

I will see that proper distribution is made. Reading matter will be much appreciated. Respectfully,Lucien A. Spencer, Chaplain Second Florida Infantry.
Laredo, Texas.

PRIZES FOR THE CANNING CLUB GIRLS

To All Canning Club Girls: We are interested in what records you have made on your one-tenth acre plot. If you have been troubled by drought or rain and storm, do not be discouraged, but send in a record. No matter how small the yield, we want a well kept record. We hope you have made a profit.The Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce makes the following offer for their fair to be held in December:To the canning club girls who send in the best exhibit of canned fruits, preserves, jellies, vinegars and canned vegetables, $75.To the canning club girls who send in the second best exhibit of canned fruits, preserves, jellies, vinegars and canned vegetables, $25.To the county sending the best exhibit from not less than ten girls, $100.
To the county sending the second best exhibit from not less than ten girls, $25.Some girl will get that $75, and it is only the girls who try, who ever win. Now is the time to prepare for this exhibit. We can safely promise to sell all of your products at a reasonable price, if they are of excellent quality.You know Mrs. Okie Painter Williams' offer of a gold watch to the first prize winner in each county. Mrs.
Williams has given fifty-one girls gold watches. No girl who wins one is eligible for a watch the second year.
No girl is eligible for the state prize of $100, who has an irrigation plant on her plot. This college is going to present certificates to those girls who have been club members of good standing for four years. There are not many to receive these certificates this year, but we hope many of you who are club members will continue in the work long enough to receive certificates.We are happy that more Florida girls are joining every year, and that you are working hard to save the surplus fruits and vegetables, to study home making, and to become helpful daughters. Yours with best wishes, Agnes Ellen Harris,
State Home Demonstration Agent.
